

Introduction

Welcome and thank you for downloading our coloring book!

The financial industry is an incredibly competitive and fast-moving space with markets and technologies that continue to evolve and change.

At Gate 39 Media, we think that a component of success is to be able to take time for the facilitation of creative energy and brainstorming.

Our Financial Industry coloring book is intended to provide some therapeutic value as you navigate conference calls, stressful days, and volatile markets. I hope you enjoy this book as much as we did putting it together, let's have some fun!
